

K-Love serves me as a resident of Chapel Hill. It really is the only station presenting commercial free, uplifting Christian programming. We would lose a really valuable resource if this were replaced by some other programming. It encourages people and gives them an alternative to the usual negative fare. Everyone wins with K-Love. It is in the public interest because spreading God's love to everyone makes us all better, more positive, happier, and a better nation.